Dear Parent/Carer

I am very pleased to be able to announce that following the interviews which took place last week, Miss Emily Husbands will be joining Bunwell Primary School from this September as the Head of School.

Miss Husbands is originally from Norfolk and has eight years' teaching experience in Hertfordshire and London schools. She is currently in a Senior Leadership position in a primary school in London and brings knowledge and experience which will benefit both the staff and pupils of Bunwell Primary School.

Miss Husbands will be responsible for all aspects of the School on a day to day basis including working with the staff, pupils and parents. She will also have some teaching responsibility across the school. For the continuity of the running of the school I will retain the Executive Leadership responsibility during the next academic year on a part time basis.

I am sure you will join me in welcoming Miss Husbands to our school in September and we look forward to developing the school's future together.

Yours sincerely

Mark Merrywest
