Dear Parents and Carers,

I am delighted to be writing to you as Head of School here at Bunwell Primary School. Over the next few weeks I am keen to get to know as many parents as possible, as well as the pupils and staff. I will be on the gate every morning if you would like to come and say hello.

From my previous experience of being a teacher, I know that a successful and happy school depends on all of us working together. It is extremely important to me that the children at Bunwell are happy and that all of their needs, academic and otherwise, are met. My priority is to support the dedicated staff in ensuring that our children achieve the very best standards that they can. When visiting I have been very impressed by the behaviour and attitude of the children. I believe that respect, good behaviour and a positive attitude underpin excellent learning and the well-being of everybody in school.

I am very excited to be joining Bunwell Primary School and intend to continue the drive for constant improvement set by Mr Merrywest. I feel privileged to be working with such an enthusiastic team and will be working closely with them, in partnership with parents. I am looking forward to finding out more about the school so that the changes we make in this new chapter of the school's history are supported by the whole school community.

Yours Sincerely,

Miss Husbands

Head of School
