

Bunwell Primary School Parent Forum

What is a Parent Forum?

The Parent Forum is an open forum for all parents who wish to discuss school-related issues. We meet regularly and at different times of day so that as many parents as possible have the opportunity to attend.

Aims of the Parent Forum

- To assist the school in sharing information
- To open links for parents to express opinions and raise issues
- Improve communication links between school and parents
- Encourage closer links between home and school, helping parent

Who can attend?

- Any parent/carer who has a child at the school
- School based staff (Head/teacher)
- Governors/Trustees

Meetings will be held in school on a termly basis.

Reporting

- Minutes taken and shared on school website
- Reminders of upcoming meetings will be on the newsletter
- Parents and carers are invited to share agenda ideas via Dojo

Code of Conduct

- Discretion and respect
- Non-prejudiced comments and remarks
- Avoid naming individual members of the school community including discussing individual children
- Listen to others' views and opinions
